

April 2, 2020

Child Care for Essential Workers

The Provincial government is permitting the operation of regulated child care services for children (one to 13 years) in order to support and enable health care professionals and other essential workers to provide critical services if they have no other options available. For details and to access an application form, please see the Essential Worker Child Care Service Application Form.