TableWare 2007 - The Big Spree
Fifth Annual Fundraiser in support of
On school days some 17,000 children and youth at 170 Kids Eat Smart Clubs throughout Newfoundland and Labrador have breakfast, snack, or lunch together.

The Clubs are run by volunteers, and nutritious food choices are prepared and served in an atmosphere of exuberance and joy.

The primary purpose of Kids Eat Smart Clubs is education—children and youth need food energy to concentrate and learn. But eating together in a warm, upbeat atmosphere brings people together. The indirect benefits of a Kids Eat Smart Club spread out to include a unified community culture, improved school atmosphere, fewer behavioural issues, good nutritional habits, and a strong sense that ‘community cares’. In the short term, this means well-nourished, happier students who can focus on school work. The long-term effects include improved educational outcomes, improved health, and a sense of social commitment.

TableWare 2007—The Big Spree is a corporate fundraising celebration in support of Kids Eat Smart Clubs. Approximately 300 guests from the oil and gas, government, legal, construction and other communities will be present to vie for amazing one-of-a-kind TableWare plates and other live and silent auction items, as well as games and prizes, entertainment and much more wrapped up by CTV co-host Seamus O’Regan in The Big Spree.

TableWare has the support of the arts community, with critically acclaimed artists like Mary Pratt, Wayne Johnston, Scott Goudie, Nathaniel Noel, Barbara Pratt, Jim Maunder, Lisa Moore, Michael Crummey, Lori Doody, Bonnie Leyton, Angela Antle, Elena Popova among those who have prepared plates or other auction items for TableWare.

Proceeds from the evening will go to grants for food for Kids Eat Smart Clubs. There are many ways you can help support this event:

- Donate a product or service for auction
- Buy an item to be sold on auction ($200-$1000)
- Sponsor a Big Spree game ($1000)
- Buy a table ($1250)
- Sponsor a portion of the evening ($1500)
  - (cocktail reception, PowerPoint presentation, entertainment, dessert, table centrepieces)

The evening will be exceptional, and the benefits will last a lifetime. Please call to let us know how you want to help.
